■ Course Information

Target Audience: Military officers (O-1 to O-4), enlisted (E-5 to E-8), and US Government civilian employees designated by the commander to perform AT/FP duties and other individuals involved in or supporting AT/FP programs. ROC is a nominative course. Students are selected on an individual basis and notified of their selection by the course director. Selections are made 4 weeks prior to the course start date.

Description: The Responsible Officers Course is a certification course for DoD Level II Antiterrorism Officer (ATO) training. Graduates of ROC will be ATII-certified and can perform the function of Antiterrorism Officers IAW DoDI 2000.16, DoD Antiterrorism Standards. AT will be addressed focusing on a basic knowledge of the motivation, organization, techniques, operational capabilities, and threat posed by terrorist groups. Strong emphasis is placed on individual protective measures that can be used to minimize the threat, to include OPSEC considerations. Students will engage in antiterrorism/force protection (AT/FP) planning, vulnerability assessments, site surveys, and reporting, as well as familiarization with the technology and techniques associated with AT/FP duties. Successful completion of the capstone exercise is required for ATII certification.

Prerequisites/References: Dynamics of International Terrorism (DIT). The DIT includes lessons that are core to the ROC curriculum and must be attended in concert with the ROC. The 12 day course length includes 5 days of the Dynamics of International Terrorism (DIT) course, which the individual must attend, even if previously completed.
