

AFSOC Special Operations Security Forces DAGRE Qualification Course

COURSE DISCRIPTION:

This is the culminating course to test the student's ability to apply the skills learned in the prerequisite courses. Topics include Advanced Gunfighter Development (M-4 and M-9), Small Unit Tactics (SMUT) to include Military Operations on Urbanized Terrain (MOUT) and Close Quarters Battle (CQB), mission planning, and a field training exercise. The field training exercise provides a realistic setting for the students to conduct Full Mission Profile (FMP) operations and places a heavy emphasis on practical applications of tactical leadership, physical fitness, and mental toughness.

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED:

All students MUST report with the following equipment and uniforms:

- MAJCOM A41S approved load carrying equipment or issued equivalent
- MAJCOM A41S approved Kevlar helmet with night vision helmet mount
- MAJCOM A41S approved Kevlar body armor with plates
- One rucksack (with 45 pounds of weight)
- Rigger's belt w/ aircraft tie-in
- Assigned M-4 rifle with M-68 optical device and PEQ-15 mounted/zeroed (and sling)
(ALL STUDENTS MUST HAVE AN OPERATIONAL KNOWLEDGE AND ZEROED THEIR PEQ-15 PRIOR TO ATTENDING)
- Assigned M-9 pistol
- M-9 holster (No Serpa Holster. Safariland ALS ONLY)
- Concealed M-9 holster
- Weapons case
- Eight M-4 magazines
- Three M-9 magazines
- AFSOC/A41S Approved Night Vision Device complete with accessory kit to include two extra batteries
- Cold and wet weather gear
- Three sets of serviceable ABUs
- Three sets of non-serviceable ABUs (if desired) (ACUs, BDU,s DCUs AND FLIGHTSUITS ARE PROHIBITED)
- One patrol cap
- Two pairs of boots
- Three sets of Air Force physical training uniforms to include pants and jacket (minimum)
- One pair of broken-in running shoes
- Eye Protection (clear and dark)
- Ear Protection (foamies or electronic)
- Protective gloves
- One military lensatic compass

- One protractor
- Flashlight with red/blue/green lens adapter
- Non-permanent thin-writing markers
- Permanent marker
- Two pencils
- 50 feet of 550 parachute cord
- One sleeping bag
- One poncho
- One poncho liner
- One entrenching tool
- Two towels
- Hydration System(s) (Camelbak, canteens)
- Undergarments (underwear, t-shirts, bras and socks) as needed
- Alarm clock
- Padlock
- Insect repellent
- Sunscreen
- Toiletry items
- Civilian clothing as needed

PREREQUISITES:

AFSCs 3P0X1/A/B or 31P1 in the grades of A1C through SMSgt and 2dLt through Major, are worldwide deployable, and scored a Satisfactory or better on their AF PT test IAW AFI 36-2905, Fitness Program, are eligible to attend. Students must have completed the following courses:

- ISOC (Introduction to Special Operations Course)
- AFSOC SF LEADER (SOSF Leadership Course)
- AFSOC SF FLYAWAY (SOSF Fly-Away Security Course)
- AFSOC SF COMMS (SOSF Communications Course)
- AFSOC SF COMBAT (SOSF Combatives Course)
- AFSOC SF TACTIC (SOSF Tactics Course)
- AFSOC SF TACVEH (SOSF Tactical Vehicle Operations Course)

All students must possess the following:

- SF 600 medical clearance signed by a doctor stating the individual is cleared for the 371 SOCTS SOSF Courses using the 371 SOCTS-SF template.
- Valid civilian driver's license
- Current military driver's license with UP-Armored HMMWV, 4 x 4 Six Pax Truck, & 15 Pax Van qualifications